

Building Playful Foundations

Parents and carers, join us for a 4 week interactive course at Winchelsea School.

With specialist children's Occupational Therapists, Amelia Bray and Anna Willis.

We will be covering the topics of sensory integration and development through play, which are essential for learning.

We will also cover:

- Practical ways to enhance development and learning through the senses in play.
- The importance of sensory integration.
- How the senses promote development, participation and learning.
- How the senses underpin movement, emotional regulation, social communication and thinking.

Course Cost: £80.00, including all resources and refreshments.

Course runs from 6pm to 7.30pm on the following dates:

28th June 2017

5th July

12th July

19th July
